

Radiomar was selected by Hatteland, Norwegian manufacturer of computers and displays, as a representative service in Brazil. The choice was made after a survey among Brazilian Marine Electronic companies. Last month, Radiomar attended a technical training at the Norwegian manufacturer.

With offices in Norway, Germany, France and United States, Hatteland Display is the market leader in monitors and computers certified for marine use, providing their systems for leading manufacturers of navigation equipment and communications market.

---