

RADIOMAR Engineers and Technicians, periodically are submitted to internal and external courses, in order to be always up to date and better informed about the best technologies in the area, which in turn enables us to offer complete solutions, with modern and better cost benefit to our customers.

We also offer training courses for our dealers and customers, giving them the adequate knowledge on the operation and maintenance of equipment and systems sold or installed.

---